Privat Instruction Info Packet

OVERVIEW

Thank you for considering private Instruction with me, Max Andrew McCreary. I am an experienced director, dramaturg, playwright, and theatre artist currently based in the Indianapolis area. At present, I am an instructor at Roots' School of Theatre in Fishers, IN, and the Special Projects Manager for IndyFringe, downtown.

When you sign up for private lessons with me, you are starting a process of building a strong support system and catalogue of dramatic skills specifically catered to your learning interests. Curriculum is developed as we work, with no two students following the exact same path because not every learning strategy is going to work for every student.

All rates are negotiable based on need. Additional charges may be added if I am traveling to the student. Standard Rates:

- Single Student, in Person - $25/hr
- Partnered Lessons (2 students working together) - $20 each/90 minutes of instruction

Payment can be made by check payable to Max McCreary OR via venmo @Max-McCreary OR Apple Cash
